SING SING, N. Y.—Facts which have recently come to light indicate that a large number of Sing Sing convicts have obtained discharges before the expiration of their sentences. It appears that a convict named Canter, employed for many years in the clerk's office, and whose duty it was to make out a monthly report of punishments, from which is ascertained the commutation of sentence in the case of each convict, has been in the habit of fraudulently reporting men for discharge long before their time had expired. The discovery was made a day or two ago, as a convict named Miller was about being discharged, when suspicion caused the records to be examined, and it was found that he had yet nine months to serve. The convict Miller at first denied any knowledge of the fraud, but subsequently stated that he agreed to pay Canter a certain sum of money for his services. It is believed that this traffic in fraudulent discharges has been going on for years in the prison, and rumor states that others besides convicts have benefitted themselves thereby.

An economical fellow in St. Louis married his sweetheart secretly a year ago, in order that he need not assume the expense of her support until better able. He has just accumulated money enough to take a bridal tour.

A "domestic infidelity" case has been decided in the Sandwich Islands. The false wife had her ears cut off, and the gay davelet lost his fingers in the same way by the executioner.

A woman was brought in a wheelbarrow, drunk, to the New Orleans police station, the other night, her three children following, her infant by her side, and the papers say "it is not a very rare instance."

The man who could have bought Omaha thirty years ago for a shot-gun is there, bewailing the fact that at the time he didn't own the shot-gun.

A French lady was detected in trying to smuggle six poodles through the New York custom house the other day, stowed in her pockets.

The Great Yosemite Bitters.
All hail great benefactor.
Who to cure us of our ills,
Gives life to the disconsolate,
Without noxious drugs or pills—
Drives disease from our life system,
Fills the heart with life and light,
With the best of all the tonics,
Downer—Great Yosemite!

With root from out the valleys,
Where California's sun doth shine,
Giving wealth to our poor mortals,
Beyond the riches of her mines,
Wealth of health and happiness,
His blessings none should slight,
Do you want it? Would you have it?
Use Downer's Great Yosemite!

Come ye sick, diseased, disconsolate,
Why should you pine and die?
Ye feeble, faint and languishing,
Come, these glorious Bitters try,
See how these quacks and nostrums,
Flee from the land in flight,
Giving place to this true tonic,
Downer's Great Yosemite! jul 24-1f
